

How to connect new handset with an existing base:

- a) make sure that the base and the handset are on standby and the base is not used by any other handset
- b) press on the backside of the base station the 'REG' button till all 4 lights come on
- c) press in the handset 'menu' and after this '6' and then '1'

The new handset will get the next available id from the Durafon base station